SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO.

1. The Batavia branch of the Kuomintang is weakly organized and its morale is low. It is not capable of coping with the spread of Communism in the Chinese community.
2. The governing council is composed of self-appointed leaders such as the following:

TAN Hi Hie	A professional gambler and drug smuggler.
KHOE Njan Joeng	A politician and a pre-war importer of Japanese goods, even though the Kuomintang boycotted Japanese goods.
TJUNG See Gan	A pre-war importer of Japanese goods. He employed a Dutch Nazi, Bausch, to handle his correspondence with the Japanese.
3. Other important members of the Batavia branch include LIM Tjoe Pwie, trader and profiteer; TJIE It Khioen, commandant of the San Min Chu Yi Youth Corps, Molenvliet West, Batavia; and LIM Pak Tjing, Patekoan No. 5, Batavia.
4. The Chinese Consul General, TSIANG Chia Tung, ignores the background of the Kuomintang members, claiming that he has no right to interfere with party members.
5. The left wing of the Kuomintang is led by LIE Kit Foe and is financed by OEY Kin Jam. The left wing sides more with the Chinese Communist Party than with the Nationalists. This organization has more than 1,000 followers in Batavia. It is cooperating with the Min Chu Tung Men in its opposition to Chiang Kai-shek and also collaborates in the forming of Communist cells in Southeast Asia.
6. Some important members of the left wing are LIOE Kah Kee, an anti-Chiang Kai-shek industrialist; LIOE Kah Kee's brother, LIOE Yin Phen; TJIE Joek Moy; IAM Siat Tun; and other members of the Min Chu Tung Men.
